Manitou Springs

<http://www.manitousprings.org/>

Approx. 10-15 minutes away from World Arena

Located at the foot of Pikes Peak, Manitou Springs is a town rich in history. Many of the mineral springs, around which the town was founded, have been restored and run today. The water, cool and pleasant to drink, takes thousands of years to complete its journey from mountain sources to Manitou Springs and is totally free of industrial and atmospheric contamination. Discover them all through self and leader guided tours.

Stroll the recently redeveloped downtown district and enjoy the variety of art galleries, gift shops, clothing boutiques, and antique stores. From souvenirs to your own special treasures, you're sure to find a perfect reminder of your visit.

Manitou Springs may be small in size, but it is big in dining! We have everything from family style eateries and cafes to elegant 4 star restaurants. Whether you are seeking breakfast, lunch, or dinner, sweets, ice cream, pizza or pancakes, vegetarian or wild game, there is something to suit everyone's tastes.

Pearl Street Mall

Approx. 2 hrs & 20 minutes from World Arena, North of Denver in Boulder.

www.boulderdowntown.com

The Pearl Street Mall is a popular destination for tourists visiting Boulder and for students attending the nearby University of Colorado at Boulder. Unlike many shopping districts, the mall is made up almost entirely of locally owned businesses. It is also home to much of Boulder's nightlife. During the summer months, Pearl Street Mall is the stage for a number of street performers (or Buskers), including musicians. It is also a favorite gathering spot for many of Boulder's homeless people. The Pearl Street Mall is filled with public art, including numerous fountains and sculptures as well as a sandbox for children, a stylized map of Boulder County and a number of small gardens which are planted with a variety of flowers and trees, most notably tulips in the spring. The Mall is at the heart of downtown Boulder, in the western part of present-day Boulder. The area is a historic district and many of the buildings are among the oldest in Boulder. The Boulder County Courthouse is located in the 1300 block on the north side of the mall.
